Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Simsbury Bank and SBT Investment Services, Inc.

What we do

How does Simsbury Bank and SBT Investment Services, Inc. protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. Only employees who have a business reason for your information have access to it.

How does Simsbury Bank and SBT Investment Services, Inc. collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or apply for a loan
- pay your bills or make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
